

1.17 Employee Gym Memberships

In order to promote employee health, wellness, fitness for duty, and overall productivity within its workforce, Georgetown Charter Township will offer subsidies for gym memberships to qualifying employees. The Township will contribute toward a subsidy for gym memberships for eligible employees, up to a maximum of $40 per month. In order to receive this benefit, eligible employees must enroll in any approved fitness facility and must submit proof of membership to the Superintendent's office for verification. The subsidy will be applied monthly and cannot exceed the $40 limit; any amounts above this cap are the responsibility of the employee. Employees must use their membership for their personal fitness and may be asked to provide periodic proof that they have used this membership to maintain their eligibility for this continued benefit. Employees eligible to receive this benefit are any employees employed in the following Township departments: Fire Department.
