Association Business:

Bench from Andre's Crossing given to Jenison Museum by Windell Leathhead. Bench is on porch at the Museum.

Joyce Klawiter is in charge of documents for articles on loan and donations has updated versions of forms for loans and donations to Museum.

Ken will check on additional insurance for Museum.

Anne Foote discussed July Open house for Victorian Wedding $100 approved for expenses. Motion made by Joyce Klawiter, seconded by Grayce Lancaster.

Questions about Historical designation of house. The house is a designated Historical House. We are a non-profit organization.

Discussed checking with banks about grants for repairs on Museum. Ken Williams will check with Byron Center and Macatawa Banks. Dan Carlton suggested asking a bank to sponsor an open house at the Museum. Putting a sign out in front of the house saying name of bank who is sponsoring open house or ad in paper thanking bank for sponsoring open house.

Ruth Lowing suggested a way of doing out inventory of Museum using photos of each room. Ruth has a spreadsheet that could link to photos of each room. Another suggestion was to have interns from colleges do the inventory and data base.

Approved $60.00 to replace cover on gas meter box. Motion by Grayce Lancaster, seconded by Marian Adams.

“Come see the donation of the bench from Andres’ Crossing!”

Discussed several different themes for next year's open houses.

Anne Foote shared information about the mirror in the reception area. She explained about the green cast on the mirror.

Finalized plans for July open house. Victorian wedding. Anne Foot has several stories about weddings and customs. Invitations have been sent to Georgetown Board members and several other organizations, inviting them to the mock wedding on July 21, 2007
